

RECREATION: TUESDAY

PARTY PASS

WHAT YOU NEED:

Beach Balls, cones

WHAT YOU DO:

Divide the space evenly with cones. Have kids form two groups, one on either side of the play area. Place two or three beach balls on either side. When you say "go," kids will toss beach balls from one side of the field to the other side of the field. Kids will throw balls to their opponent's side until time runs out. Play several times until your kids lose interest. Each time, add 2-3 more balls to each side.

WHAT YOU SAY:

Wow, that was awesome. The game was a little slow when we were only playing with a couple of balls, right? But when we had all the balls, it was a lot of fun, wasn't it? It reminds me of the story Jesus told in today's Bible story.

The king was throwing a party, and at first, many of the people he invited didn't want to come. However, the king reached out to more and more people, and almost everyone he invited came. The king wanted his house to be full. Remember, Jesus invites all of us to the party. You are invited. I am invited. It's better when more people come to the party, just like the game was better when there were more balls in play. Don't forget, everyone is invited!
