Today's Bible Story

Jonah

Jonah 1-3

Bottom Line

God knows what's best.

Memory Verse

Those who trust in the LORD will receive new strength. They will fly as high as eagles. They will run and not get tired. They will walk and not grow weak.

Isaiah 40:31 NIV

Inclusive Pro Tips

This leader guide is designed to be inclusive of children with a special need, learning difference, or disability who attend a group with their peers. See highlighted sections below for additional inclusive pro tips.

What You Need

- Offering container
- Index cards
- Pencils

① What You Do

Pray for your group before they arrive → Pray for kids who will visit your group for the first time. Thank God for never giving up on you, even when you've tried to run or hide. Recall an age-appropriate story about a time when you felt like you were far from God, but He kept reaching for you! Ask God to remind each kid that His love isn't based on our performance. Pray that kids would be confident that He is with them at school, at home, on hard days, and on good days. Pray they would feel God's love chasing after them, even when they make bad choices.

1. Greet each kid by name with a fist bump, high-five, smile, or wave as they arrive!
2. Invite any kids who brought an offering to place it in the offering container.
3. Give each kid one index card and a pencil.
4. Say, "Think of a place you love to go to or something fun you love to do! You're going to write or draw it on your card. Just one idea per card!"
 - Provide examples to get them started, like "The beach," "a cousin's house," "playing on the playground," or "reading a book."
5. Collect all the cards, place them in a pile, and mix them up.

Imagine Together

1. Instruct the kids to sit in a circle.
2. Mix up the index cards face down, and put them in a pile in the middle of the circle.
3. Explain how to play:
 - One kid will draw a card.
 - Without speaking, they'll act out what they think is on the card.
 - Everyone else will try to guess what they're doing or where they are!
4. Continue until everyone who wants to act has had a turn, or as time allows.

Inclusive Pro Tips

Instead of writing, invite kids to quietly tell a leader their idea to write or draw it for them.

Give kids the option to pair up and act out the cards together.

② What You Say

"It's fun to imagine all the places we can go and things we can do. Was it tricky acting out something that wasn't your idea? Some of the things we acted out might have felt easy, or even tricky! Especially when you're acting out something someone else came up with. Some of you had to guess, get creative, or just give it your best shot.

"Today, in our true story from the Bible, we'll learn about a guy named Jonah who didn't want to do what God asked him to do. He had his own idea of what was best. But guess what? God always knows what's best! Not just for Jonah, but for the people around him—and for us too! Let's go find out more!"

Transition → Lead your group to the Large Group area.

Inclusive Pro Tips

Instead of writing, invite kids to quietly tell a leader their idea to write or draw it for them.

What You Need

- "Pick a Door" Activity Page
- "God's Way Q&A" Activity Page
- Floor tape

① What You Do

Before you begin:

1. Use floor tape to mark a start line.
2. A few feet from the start line, tape down Set 1 of the "Pick a Door" Activity Page cards side by side like doorways. (There will be three doors, and all will be numbered 1 for Set 1. Mix the door with the correct answer randomly in the arrangement.)
3. Repeat this for Sets 2-7, placing each set a few feet away from the last to form a straight line.
4. Mark a finish line at the end of all seven sets of three doors.

Play Together:

1. Gather the kids behind the start line.
2. Say, "This game is called Pick a Door! At each set of doors, I will ask a question about Jonah's story, and you have to decide which door he chose in the Bible Story to move forward."
3. As the kids get to each set of three doors, first read the question, and then read the three door choices from the "God's Way Q&A" Activity Page. Be sure to follow the order of the door choices that you placed the doors on the floor so the correct answer is included randomly.
4. Invite the kids to point to the door of their choice.
5. Once the kids agree on the correct door, invite everyone to step over that set of doors and move to the next set.
 - NOTE: Encourage discussion by asking, "Why do you think that's the right door?"
6. Once you reach the finish line, celebrate the kids and gather them to discuss!

Inclusive Pro Tips

For an option with less movement, perform this activity seated and have kids point to their door choice instead of walking.

② What You Say

"What an adventure! Jonah's journey to Nineveh was one wild ride. God gave Jonah a mission to go to the city of Nineveh and tell them to turn from their sins, but Jonah went the opposite way. LITERALLY! He jumped on a boat, and God brought a giant storm. When Jonah was thrown into the sea by the people on the boat, God sent a big fish to rescue him! And after three days, Jonah finally listened to God. He traveled to Nineveh and shared God's message. And the people of Nineveh actually listened and changed!

"Why did Jonah not want to tell the Ninevites to turn from their sins? Well, the Bible tells us. Jonah said this to God:

"I knew that you are gracious. You are tender and kind. You are slow to get angry. You are full of love. You are a God who takes pity on people."
 (JONAH 4:2 NIRV)

"Jonah knew that God is kind. He knew that God would forgive the Ninevites if they turned from their sins. And that's exactly what happened!

"Do you know what Jonah's journey tells us about God? Well, God knows what's best! We should always follow God's direction. God wanted to give an entire group of people the chance to live better if they just turned from their ways! And God wanted to give Jonah a chance to share that message with them.

"But even when Jonah decided he himself didn't want to follow God's ways, God didn't give up on him—and God won't give up on you either! Even when Jonah wasn't listening, God was still patient and kind in saving him and redirecting him.

"Even when things feel confusing or you feel like you don't understand what God is asking you to do, you can always be confident that God knows what's best! You might not see the full picture, but you can take a deep breath and trust God. He is good. His ways are good. He is always working for your good. So even if you don't understand, you can always hold His hand and trust His heart. He is doing something good, that is the only thing He can do! Remember: God knows what's best. Always!"

What You Need

- Compasses
- "Confidence Prompts" Activity Page
- Device for Playing Worship Music

① What You Do

1. Give each kid a compass.
2. Teach them how to find North, South, East, and West in your group area.

Explore Together:

1. Explain how to play:
 - Say, "Each direction in the room represents a different choice. Like Jonah, we sometimes follow other things or our feelings, but we want to grow in confidence by following God's way! God's ways are best because God knows what's best."
2. Play upbeat worship music and invite the kids to dance around as they hear the music.
3. At random, stop the music and call out "Freeze!"
4. Read a scenario from the "Confidence Prompts" Activity Page and discuss it.
 - Ask: "Would this be tough for you to do?"
5. Tell the kids to move in the direction you share for that prompt.
6. Once the kids have moved in the direction of the prompt, start the music again.
7. Stop the music randomly, direct the kids to "freeze!," call out the next scenario from the "Confidence Prompts" Activity Page, and discuss it.
8. Continue in the same manner until you've read all of the "Confidence Prompts" on the Activity Page.

After the game:

Make It Personal → Share an age-appropriate time you had to trust God's way instead of your own. Did you apologize to a friend even when you didn't want to? Were you honest when it was hard? How was God's way better than what you wanted to do?

Inclusive Pro Tips

For a version with less movement, invite the kids to point to the direction seated in a chair or on the floor.

What You Need

- Compasses
- "Confidence Prompts" Activity Page

② What You Say

"Do you remember what Jonah did when God told him to go to Nineveh? He went in the complete opposite direction! God gave Jonah a very clear direction, and Jonah didn't want to go. He ran away on a boat, tried to hide, and ended up in the belly of a big fish! But even then, God gave Jonah another chance. That's how patient and loving God is.

"Today, we pretended to travel with our compasses to wherever God was leading us. Not running away, but choosing to have confidence in God's way!

"Remember, God's way is always best. It's always best to be honest because you show you're a trustworthy person. It's always best to be kind because God loves and values everyone, and they'll feel that love and value when you are kind. It's always best to forgive others, because unforgiveness does bad stuff to your heart.

"And when we live out God's ways, we're doing something even more amazing—we are being like Him! God is kind! God is truthful! God is loving! And God is fair. When we follow God's ways, not only does our life go better, and the world around us is better, but the people in our lives see Jesus!

"You don't have to get it right every time. But remember, you don't have to do it alone. When you choose to follow Jesus, His very Spirit moves inside of you to help you follow His ways. Pause and ask God to help you follow His ways and do what's right! Remember, God knows what's best!"

Inclusive Pro Tips

For a version with less movement, invite the kids to point to the direction seated in a chair or on the floor.

What You Need

- Markers or pencils
- Large bowl or basket
- Index cards
- Bible marked at John 14:6

① What You Do

1. Gather the kids together in a circle.
2. Give each kid:
 - One index card
 - A marker or pencil
3. Place the large bowl or basket in the center of the circle.

Reflect Together:

1. Say, "Jonah had a tough time trusting that God knew best. Sometimes we do too but God invites us to trust Him anyway! God promises to give us strength even when it's hard."
2. Invite kids to write or draw one thing that's been hard to trust God with lately.
 - Maybe they are feeling anxious about schoolwork or a decision they have to make. Or maybe they're struggling to feel confident around their friends.
3. Take a moment to discuss what it means to make a decision to follow Jesus! If you need help with what to say, ask your ministry leader or use the talking points below.

"Did you know the biggest way we can trust God is by choosing to follow Jesus? (Read John 14:6 from the Bible.) Jesus came to make a way for us to be close friends with God, FOREVER! We don't have to earn it, we just have to believe that God's Son, Jesus, gave His life for us! If you've never made the decision to follow Jesus and you want to, you can write that on your card too. If you do, I'd love to talk with you and help you know what that means."

4. Once everyone is finished, direct the kids to fold their paper once and drop it in the bowl.
5. As they drop it in the bowl, encourage them to say, "God, I trust You. You know what's best!"
6. Close in prayer.

② Prayer

"God, we are so thankful that You know what's best even when we don't understand. Help each of us to trust You and follow Your ways no matter what. Thank You for sending Jesus so we can be close to You forever! Fill us with confidence through the Holy Spirit so that we can soar like eagles this week! We love You so much, God, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen!"

Transition → As adults arrive to pick up, invite them to show their grown-ups their compasses and encourage them to share no matter where He leads us, or what He asks us to do, God's way is the best way!
