Inclusive Pro Tips

This leader guide is designed to be inclusive of children with a special need, learning difference, or disability who attend a group with their peers. See highlighted sections below for additional inclusive pro tips.

SOCIAL

Opening Activity

What You Need

- Offering container

① What You Do

Pray for your group before they arrive → Pray for kids who will visit your group for the first time. Thank God that He places people in the right place at the right time for His purpose. Recall an age-appropriate story about a time when God gave you courage to speak up for someone else. Ask God to help each kid realize that their voice matters and that He can use them, even now! Ask God to help the kids learn how to hear and listen to His voice as He leads them through the places He's put them for such a time as this!

1. Greet each kid by name with a fist bump, high-five, smile, or wave as they arrive!
2. Invite any kids who brought an offering to place it in the offering container.
3. Instruct the kids to sit in a circle or around a table in chairs.

Play Together

1. Introduce a game called "Stand Up If!"
2. Say: "When I call out something that might be true for you, stand up! Then sit back down so we can go to the next one."
3. Read the "Stand Up If" prompts below one by one.
4. Pause periodically to call on any kids who want to explain why they chose to stand.
  - NOTE: If time allows, invite kids to share their own "Stand Up If" prompts with the group!
5. Continue until all the prompts have been answered.

"Stand Up If" Prompts

1. Stand up if you've ever eaten pizza.
2. Stand up if you've ever asked God for help.
3. Stand up if you've ever felt nervous before a big moment.
4. Stand up if you like rainy days.
5. Stand up if you like cheering for your friends.
6. Stand up if ice cream is your favorite dessert.
7. Stand up if you've ever stood up for someone else.
8. Stand up if you like celebrating your birthday.

② What You Say

"Wow! So many of us like some of the same things, or have been through the same kinds of things. One thing is for sure—we've all had moments when we needed to be confident, even if it felt scary!"

"Today, in our true story from the Bible, we'll follow the story of Esther. Esther did something pretty bold and brave, even when it wasn't easy. She stood up for others! God wants to give you the confidence to stand up for others too! Let's go find out how!"

Transition → Lead your group to the Large Group area.

Inclusive Pro Tips

For an option with less movement, invite the kids to raise their hands from a seated position or use a thumbs-up to answer the prompts.

① What You Do

1. Divide the kids into groups of 2-3.
2. Say, "Today you'll help me tell Esther's story, but with a twist!"
3. One by one, read a real moment from Esther's story—they are listed below—then pause and ask the "What if?" question that corresponds to the real moment.
4. After reading a "What If?" question, invite the groups to act it out.
5. For each round, select a group to share their skit, acting out the "What If" question.
6. Before going through Esther's story, discuss the questions below.

Talk Together:

1. Ask: What gave Esther the confidence to stand up for her people even when it was hard?
→ Esther trusted and believed God put her there at that time for a reason! (Esther 4:14b)
2. Ask: Why can we have confidence in God?
→ Because He is good and He is always working for good.

"What If?" Scenarios:

1. Real: Haman made a plan to hurt God's people.
→ What if: Mordecai had just stayed quiet and not told Esther anything about Haman's awful plan?
2. Real: Esther was afraid, but chose to go to the king.
→ What if: Esther had stayed quiet and done nothing to help?
3. Real: Esther prepared two banquets to build up courage and timing.
→ What if: Esther had rushed in without a plan?
4. Real: Esther trusted that God had put her where she was for that time, and stood up for her people.
→ What if: Esther only looked out for herself and ignored people in danger?

Inclusive Pro Tips

For an option with less movement, have the kids share answers to the "what if" statements from a seated position.

② What You Say

"Wow—so many 'what if' moments! Esther had a choice, just like we do! Think about it: she could've backed away or stayed quiet. But she put aside her own fears and trusted that God had a plan and chose to do the right thing. How incredible is it that God puts us all in the right places for a purpose to carry out His plans!

"We are just like Esther! Just like her, God has put us in this exact time and this exact place. You are to go through your life, with God's guidance, and help people see and feel God's love and goodness.

"God is fair and just. So when you're fair, when you stand up for someone who is being picked on, you're not only being like God, you're showing the world who God is! God is kind, so when you sit with a kid who is alone, you're not only being like God, you're showing the world who God is! God loves people who don't seem to fit in, so when you show kindness to someone who is different than you, you're not only being like God, you're showing the world who God is!

"And God has put you just where you are to show your world what He is like!

"As you go throughout your days showing who God is, God goes with you every step of the way, and He will help you. God can help you stand up for others!"

What You Need

- Bible marked at Esther 4:14
- "Perfectly Placed" Activity Page
- Prepared poster board
- Two colors of sticky notes
- Pencils
- Masking tape

MADE TO Imagine

① What You Do

1. Tape the prepared poster board on a wall or place it on the floor in your group area.
2. Gather the kids several feet away from the poster board.
3. Read Esther 4:14 aloud to the group.
4. Give every kid at least five sticky notes in each color and a pencil.
5. Encourage the kids to write their initials on their sticky notes.
6. Gesture to the prepared poster board and ask: "In today's Bible Story, Esther and her people were going to be killed. Esther's people were in danger! She could have done nothing, but she realized that God put her where she was to help. So she got involved and helped! She stood up for others."

Imagine Together:

1. Say, "We're going to look at different situations we may face in our own lives where we face a choice too—we can either stand up for others, or we can choose not to get involved. On the left side of this poster board, we'll place sticky notes of one color for choices that show what it looks like not to get involved. On the right side, we'll put sticky notes of the other color that show that the hard thing was done and we stood up for others."
2. Read the "Perfectly Placed" Activity Page scenarios one at a time and ask:
3. "Does this show someone standing up for others or not?"
4. Invite every kid to respond by placing the corresponding sticky note color with their initials on the side they want to choose.
5. Continue until all of the scenarios have been read and voted on.

Make It Personal → Share an age-appropriate example of a time God helped you stand up for others.

② What You Say

"You may not be standing in a palace or talking to a king, but you are just like Esther in that God has put you exactly in the time and place you are—in your family, in your class, on your team, in your church group. God wants you to go through your life and show His love, goodness, kindness, justice, and truthfulness!

"Maybe it's someone being made fun of. Or maybe it's someone who just needs to know they matter. Remember that you're not going through this alone. When you choose to follow Jesus, God's very Spirit, the Holy Spirit, moves inside of you. He will go with you throughout your life and say things to your heart like: 'Hey, do you see that kid over there who is all alone? He needs someone to be kind to him. Go do that!'

"You are not alone as you go and show God's heart to others. God can help you stand up for others!"

Inclusive Pro Tips

Before you begin, provide a visual of what to do with the sticky notes by placing a sticky note on each side and explaining the color meanings.

Please help us listen to Your Spirit and see the people around us whom You are calling us to help. Remind us that You are always right there with us in everything You ask us to do! We love You, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."

Transition → As adults arrive to pick up, invite the kids to share their "Brick Prayers." Who did they choose to pray for today? Why? How is God calling them to look out for that person this week?

Inclusive Pro Tips

Give the kids various ways to complete their prayer card. Some kids may focus better while standing or lying on their stomachs.
